ABBY JOHNSON

All Abby Johnson ever wanted to do was help women. Her passion surrounding a woman's right to choose even led her to become a spokesperson for Planned Parenthood, fighting to enact legislation for the cause she so deeply believed in. However, she experienced a "change of heart" while participating in an ultrasound-guided abortion procedure.

Today, Abby travels across the globe sharing her story, educating the public on pro-life issues, advocating for the unborn, and reaching out to abortion clinic staff who still work in the industry. She is the founder of And Then There Were None, a ministry designed to assist abortion clinic workers in transitioning out of the industry. To date, this ministry has helped over 575 workers leave the abortion industry. Abby lives in Texas with her husband and eight precious children.

BENJAMIN WATSON

Benjamin Watson is a man of Football, Faith and Family; He played 16 seasons in the NFL with the Patriots, Browns, Saints and Ravens. He retired after the 2019 season with 547 career receptions and as a Super Bowl champion (in 2004-05 with the Patriots). Benjamin received the seed of faith in the early years of his childhood.

For him his faith in Jesus Christ is a foundational part of his identity. Benjamin is a beloved son, and a big brother, a devout husband, and a loving father of his seven children, and very proud of his heritage as an African-American. For Benjamin, being pro-life is from conception to the grave. To stand for life for him, includes victims of sex-trafficking, abuse and hunger, the poor, the disadvantaged, as well as the elite. In fall of 2020 Benjamin Watson and his wife Kristin combined their two concerns of pro-life justice and racial justice in a documentary called Divided Hearts of America.
